

Attention: Educators and Ocean Enthusiasts!

Save the Date for the

33rd Annual Conference of the New York State Marine Education Association (NYSMEA)

Our Local Waters: Resources, Restoration, and Citizen Action

Saturday June 4, 2011

Kingsborough Community College
Brooklyn, NY

For more information and to register: www.nysmea.org

Activities include:

- Keynote Speakers – listen to inspiring talks from Dr. Merry Camhi from the Wildlife Conservation Society and Paula Zevin from the Environmental Protection Agency!
- Workshops – learn how to get involved in local stewardship activities in the field, lab, or classroom!
- Field Trips – sample aboard a research vessel, seine at the beach, marine ecology and water chemistry, and more!
- Networking – meet other marine educators and enthusiasts from across the state!
- New York Aquarium – enjoy special “after hours” access, dinner, and a presentation on the New York Seascape program!
- Auction – win great prizes including restaurant gift certificates, fossils, laboratory supplies, and more!

Professional Development credit is available!